KENAI PENINSULA MIDDLE COLLEGE SCHOOL

What is Middle College?

Kenai Peninsula Middle College School is a partnership between KPC and KPBSD which provides a bridge between high school and college.

Eligible students can complete their high school diploma while earning college credit through classes at both KPC and a local high school, while receiving additional support and mentoring to ensure their success.

Tell Me More ...

Eligible students are in 11th or 12th grade, have a 2.5+ GPA and placement test as college ready. Students work with their mentor to create a schedule that works for them - including upto 12 credits at KPC and two classes at their local school. KPC courses can be distance or on-site and students can participate in athletics at their local high school. Tuition, books and fees are paid by KPMCS.

How do I enroll?
